

Martina Fahrnberger

I WOULD DESCRIBE MY BACKGROUND AS ...

diverse – I studied Social and Cultural Anthropology out of passion, did my training to become a mediator out of interest, thought that coaching and supervision were good additions, was curious about psychology and added Systemic Structural Constellations because they are exciting and meaningful.

Applying all these tools in seminars, workshops, coaching, mediation and moderation have so far completely locked out any kind of routine or boredom.

I HAVE LEARNT A LOT...

whilst flying around the world – as the purser being responsible for comfort and safety of passengers and crew – on my own – up in the air – there's always a solution – even if it isn't straightaway blindingly obvious. during stays in countries that aren't necessarily classical holiday destinations. at seminars and workshops where everyone shares their knowledge and experiences – imparting and intaking – so all of us would partake.

I...

was born in 1967 and grew up in the country – always harbouring the wish to go out into the world.

have a wonderful son (2000) and a husband who shares my curiosity about the world.

love to travel without the need to arrive, to linger in places, to immerse myself, share experiences with people and time and again realise the multitude of ways to deal with whatever life has in store.

OTHERS SAY ABOUT ME ...

that I am capable of hearing the unspoken.
that I am passionate about what I am doing,
like to tackle matters, implement them and get them started.
that I rarely give up and value what surrounds me.

MOST CERTAINLY NO BOREDOM IN SEMINARS OF MARTINA FAHRNBERGER! WHEN IT COMES TO ENTHUSIASTIC REVIEWS, SHE'S HEAD AND SHOULDERS ABOVE ANYONE ELSE.

OTHER THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT ME ARE ...

that I can be a true maverick – who loves to cook and run all on her own.
that I occasionally think it would be great if I was bored.
that I consider life a wonderful gift – that wants to be tackled.
